

Workshop

Applying for Exhibitions and Grants

Open to all Craft and Visual Artists

Saturday, 18th November 2017

10am-4pm

Woody Point, location to be confirmed

$25, lunch included

presented by Barb Daniell

Applying for exhibitions and grants can feel like a daunting, mysterious process. This workshop examines the basic components required for most exhibition and grant applications, with a focus on how your artistic goals can best be presented to galleries and funding sources.

No previous experience with proposal writing required.

Keep an eye out for more workshops this fall and winter including: smartphone video, product photography and social media

To Register contact:

Molly White

mewwhite6@hotmail.com

709-453-2538